

Please do the following to support us:

1. Nominate us for National Women's Committee. You may nominate the candidates at your women's branch or CLP. You may ask your CLP secretary or Women's Officer if your CLP has a different procedure. The deadline for CLPs to submit their nominations is 12 noon, Friday 23 June 2023. Details can be found on the Labour Party website: <https://labour.org.uk/activist-hub/governance-and-legal-hub/ballots-and-nominations/internal-ballots-2023/>.

2. Stand as a delegate to Women's Conference, if you are a woman. Each CLP can elect up to two delegates to the Women's Conference. If a second delegate is sent, one delegate should be a Disabled, BAME, or LGBT+ woman. If you are a woman, please put yourself forward as a delegate of your CLP. Please also encourage other women who may support us to stand. Your CLP secretary or Women's Officer should have already received the email about delegate registration. The deadline for CLPs to register their delegates is also 12 noon, Friday 23 June 2023.

3. Keep us informed. Please reply to this email to let us know the date when your CLP will nominate candidates for National Women's Committee and elect Women's Conference delegates. If you have already had the meeting, please email us the names of the delegates, the nominations and your CLP.

4. Spread the message. Please circulate this email to Labour members who might be interested.

Our campaign videos:

Louise Irvine <https://youtu.be/ng-7zdwabx8>,

Juemin Xu <https://youtu.be/VL2LPnWje0>.

Louise Irvine L1802764

I'm an NHS campaigner and Chair of Save Lewisham Hospital Campaign. I'm from Scotland, studied in Aberdeen, and been a GP in Lewisham for 30+ years. Locally I've campaigned on migrant women's access to NHS maternity care, against cuts to health visiting and child and adolescent mental health services, and shown support to striking NHS staff on the picket lines. I helped organise Keep Our NHS Public's Peoples Covid Inquiry, ensuring a focus on the impact on women. I'm a Unite delegate to my CLP and active in my women's branch. I spoke at National Labour Women's Conference 2022 on ensuring good quality NHS care for women, and against the sexism and discrimination women have historically suffered in medicine and health care.

I'm standing for women's committee to:

1. Ensure policies on women's issues are central to Labour's strategy and effectively address needs of the most disadvantaged women including childcare, benefits, healthcare.
2. Help build Labour women's organisation, confidence and skills.
3. Ensure Labour fulfils its promise to defend the Equality Act's single sex exceptions.
4. Encourage open and respectful debate on women's rights.

Supported by Labour Women's Declaration.

Please also nominate and vote for Juemin Xu.

louiseirvinelabourwoman@gmail.com

Juemin Xu

L1934085

As a first generation immigrant from China, I have been living here for 23 years. I'm a mother with a special needs child. I want to help make the country I have chosen to live in a better place. Being a Women's Officer, I campaign for women to be active in the party. We achieved an all-five-women delegation to our recent regional conference. It's not so long ago that women won legal equality. We cannot take our rights for granted. Therefore, I'm standing to be a member of the NWC to:

1. Speak up for women's sex-based rights and defend the rights to freedom of belief and expression.
2. Fight against misogyny, the root cause of violence against women and girls.
3. Help resolve any conflicts between the rights of women and rights of others.
4. Prioritise women's needs and scrutinise Labour's procedures and policies from women's point of view.
5. Encourage women to be active in the party and stand for office. Promote virtual access, hybrid meetings and childcare reimbursement.

Women's Officer in Greenwich and Woolwich CLP.

JueminXuForLabour@gmail.com www.jueminxu.com/nwc

Supported by Labour Women's Declaration.

Please also nominate and vote for Louise Irvine.